Compliance of Golf Clubs with Irish Anti-Doping Rules

Under Rule 40 of its Constitution, the Golf Ireland

“Condemns the use of prohibited substances and methods, a practice generally known as doping, in sport. The anti-doping rules of the Golf Ireland are the Irish Anti-Doping Rules as amended from time to time.”

As part of its commitment in this regard, Golf Ireland recommends that its affiliated clubs include a requirement to abide by the Irish Anti-Doping Rules on their membership application/renewal forms as an understanding to be given by members.

In this regard, Golf Ireland recommends that member applicants be asked to sign such forms underneath the following form of words, which should be inserted:

“I agree to abide by the Irish Anti-Doping Rules”

For further information on the Irish Anti-Doping Rules and the work of the Anti-Doping Unit of the Irish Sports Council, please see <http://www.irishsportscouncil.ie/Anti-Doping/>
